JinkoSolar Renews Sponsorship for Valencia Club de Futbol

May 8, 2012

SHANGHAI, May 8, 2012 /PRNewswire-Asia/ -- JinkoSolar Holding Co., Ltd. ("JinkoSolar" or the "Company") (NYSE: JKS), one of the world's leading vertically integrated solar power product manufacturers, today announced that the company has renewed its sponsorship for two more seasons for Valencia Club de Futbol (V.C.F.), one of the top three football teams in Spain. For the second year in a row, the company will act as the team's main sponsor, with its logo to be displayed on the team shirts for both home and away games. Valencia Club de Futbol will be playing in the European Football Champions League (UEFA) next season.

"Continuing our partnership with JinkoSolar is a reflection of our ongoing joint commitment to integrate sustainable energies into our facilities wherever possible," stated Manuel Llorente, President of Valencia (V.C.F) "Our new stadium is a catalyst to promote urban regeneration, and partnering with leaders like JinkoSolar helps spread awareness of the benefits of solar."

Valencia (V.C.F) is in the process of reconstructing its home stadium, which is one of the biggest in the world. The 75,000 seat stadium in Valencia, Spain features state-of-the-art design and includes numerous facilities to house catering, food service, parking, conference rooms and shops.

"Jinko is one of the leading providers in advancing solar power. IMS Research Institute also ranked Jinko Solar as one of the top 6 crystalline PV manufacturers globally in their latest report. Collaborating with a team that has such international prestige like Valencia (V.C.F) is a great way to augment the visibility of these efforts," said Arturo Herrero, Chief Marketing Officer for JinkoSolar. "We are honored to work alongside Valencia (V.C.F) again and look forward to an exciting year of football."
