JinkoSolar Honoured as the Most Promising Enterprise by China Energy News

January 7, 2013

SHANGHAI, Jan. 7, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- JinkoSolar Holding Co., Ltd. ("JinkoSolar" or the "Company") (NYSE: JKS), a leading global solar power product manufacturer, today announced that the Company was honored as the Most Promising Enterprise by China Energy News ("CEN") and the China Institute of Energy Economics Research ("CIER") in a joint-assessment of the world's renewable energy companies.

CEN and CIER formed a global assessment committee to conduct in-depth research on approximately one thousand global energy companies. With a long term development strategy, superior product quality and industry-leading efficiency, JinkoSolar was identified as the most promising driving force at the forefront of the photovoltaic industry.

"We are very pleased that JinkoSolar was recognized by one of the most authoritative institutions in the industry. Our business model focuses on long term sustainable development in an effort to promote the application of solar power around the world. This has always been our vision and mission," commented Mr. Kangping Chen, Chief Executive Officer of JinkoSolar.
